“The clothes make the man”

Everybody's heard the phrase, but it's true. A sharp suit, a new pair of shoes, cufflinks can do wonders for a guy. When you wear a new suit, people notice you - and they look at you differently. You see the look in their eyes that says, 'He's got a new dress,' or 'man, doesn't he look good?' It's the confidence of customers. Not just suits and ties, but Backgammon lets men show a different side. Confident, and ready to take on the world. People know you're not playing games.
